Fragrance - 2019

Bidding adieu to Vivians' outgoing batch 2019 Vivekanand School, Anand Vihar organised a farewell 'Fragrance-2019' on April 17, 2019 in the school premises. The solemn ceremony commenced with the Lamp Lighting by the dignitaries- School Director Mrs. Megha Ahujaji, Principal (officiating) Mrs. Poonam Sharma and Head Middle Wing Mr. Krishnendu Bhattacharjee, seeking blessings of the Almighty for their bright future ahead. The students enthralled the audience with Krishna Stuti and contemporary dance performance along with foot-tapping Bhangra. Achievers were conferred upon the awards in various categories - R.K. Narayan award, J.C. Bose award, to acknowledge their academic performance par excellence. Musical extravaganza by Yashasvi Bhardwaj and Ujith Udaya Kumar left the gathering mesmerised. Heartfelt emotions on leaving their alma mater found expression through a self-composed poem by Nandini on behalf of the class XII. Interactive session saw many winners for their witty replies. An inspiring address by respected Patron sir - Shri Y.D. Ahujaji for students to keep moving despite all hurdles and reach the pinnacle of success motivated XII graders for the road ahead. The officiating school Principal's address encouraged Vivians to be the driving force in their future endeavours and pledge to always aim higher as small aim is a crime. The programme concluded with the school prayer followed by refreshment arranged by the school. The students left their alma mater with a heavy heart but strong determination to keep striving for excellence in whatever they try to accomplish in life.
