

NEWS OF THE DAY

Helen O' Grady Performance (Std-V)

Today the school witnessed-Triumph a presentation with students of class V, by Helen O' Grady International. The presentation had small skits under the headings- The Barber's Secret, The Supermarket, Life of the Pencil, Ulysses and The Hunt. There was 100% participation of students who showcased unbound energy and enthusiasm. The aim of the HOGI programme was to develop the 3C's in children - confidence, communication & creativity which was achieved by the students through this performance.

Hindi Handwriting Competition (Std I-III)

Hindi Handwriting Competition was conducted in classes I-III to instill the habit of writing neatly and carefully. The importance of good handwriting was emphasized through the competition. All the students participated enthusiastically in the competition and put in their best effort to present neat and tidy work. The best entries were selected and judged on the basis of the formation of letters, spacing of letters, spellings and overall presentation.

Visit of Home for Helpless (Nur & Prep)

To inculcate the value of being empathetic, caring and sharing, a visit was organised for the kids of Nursery & Prep. The children visited home for helpless, a rehab centre for home for helpless and destitute, elderly children and adolescent. They donated medicines, clothes and toys collected from their peers to the needy. The kids were exposed to the reality of life through the visit in a safe environment.