

“CELEBRATING ECO-FRIENDLY DIWALI”

“The actions of men are the best interpreters of their thoughts.....”

With Diwali round the corner, Vivekanand School, Preet Vihar undertook a raft of activities to celebrate Green Diwali, the festival of lights with a mission – say no to crackers to celebrate Eco Friendly Diwali wherein plethora of activities for a week came into action for Grade Pre School – V which are as follows. The celebration initiated with the spirit of share and care and to bring out the Diwali cheer for the visually challenged persons, students donated pack of biscuits and eatables.

Parents were also made aware about cracker free Diwali on PTM. At the same time students were instructed in classes not to use chinese products and to join hands for the green drive. A PPT on hazardous effects of using plastic and aluminium on our health and environment was showcased. A special assembly was also conducted on celebrating Green Diwali by Grade Pre-Primary and IV. For revival of earthen diyas a vendor also visited our school from whom kids purchased diyas for their homes.

This week long Green Diwali celebration culminated on 28/10/16 with an awareness rally. Students of grade IV & V walked through the lanes of Preet Vihar, F-Block. The rally was brought into motion by our respected Principal Ma'am Mrs. Neelam Gupta. The responsible Vivians in order to educate the general public carried banners, posters, placards and wore sashes bearing anti-cracker slogans like “Burst your Ego, not Crackers”; Asthma attack last year, Spare me this year” etc the students exhorted the residents to celebrate Diwali in an eco-friendly way. After a stressful yet joyful long trip, the rally came to a stop with a new beginning. Diwali was celebrated with devotion, enthusiasm and excitement. Tastefully school campus was decorated that added charm and religious fervour to the atmosphere. The little ones came dressed up in party attire. Welcoming the festival of lights, students of Grade I- V, unfolded their creative abilities in a string of activities and competitions on the final day of the celebration i.e, 28/10/16. They also offered prayers to Goddess Laxmi and Lord Ganesha with utmost dedication and enchanted the Laxmi Ganesh Arti and prayed for prosperity and happiness.
