

NEWS OF THE DAY

NAMING WORDS

To teach the concept of Naming words, an interesting activity was done in class I wherein students recognized each object drawn on the board by their name and learnt that every object has its name. They also sorted naming words into people, place, animal and thing. Students took active participation by giving more examples from their surroundings.