

NEWS OF THE DAY

Students of class II-A had drawn and coloured beautiful scenery using their imagination. Children got opportunity to express themselves creatively rather than just copy pictures. They created their own master piece using unique art stocks and colours. They truly tried to capture the beauty of nature in their art file.