

NEWS OF THE DAY

EDUSPORTS

Being involved in sports activities benefits a person in many ways. It does not provide only physical strength however it increases mental power too. In order to inculcate the team spirit amongst children, Team Coordination games were organized for grade Pre-School & III today i.e 28.08.17. The children learnt various ways through which they can work together in a team with.