

NEWS OF THE DAY

Today, students of grade I had a great fun with doing words. They played dumb-charades on doing words. Students came forward one by one and enacted and other students guessed the word. Students were very happy and found the concept very interesting and easy. Students were evaluated on the basis of filling the blanks with the appropriate doing words looking at the picture, identifying the doing words from a given set of words, making sentences with doing words orally.