

THE CANDY STORY

Excursions are a great learning experience for the little ones. Today the students of grade PS to II were given the experience to visit the Parle Toffee Factory. They were informed about the process of manufacturing the toffees. They were also shown a little documentary. The Vivian's enjoyed the excursion to their fullest.

