

THE LITTLE ORATORS

Communication is only the tool through which we can exchange ideas. To inculcate the habit of good speaking skills in the little vivians and to boost their confidence level, we serve them with a platform where they can be the best of the orators. A Interclass Debate Competition was organized for the grade IV and V where children participated well along with the handmade props on the given topics.

