VIVEKANAND'S GOT TALENT – 2026

Dear Colleagues,

As educators, we spend every day discovering, nurturing and celebrating the talents of our students. Yet, amidst the responsibilities of teaching and school life, we often overlook the incredible talents that reside within ourselves.

Vivekanand's Got Talent – 2026 is an opportunity to pause, step onto the stage, and celebrate you—the artist, the singer, the dancer, the poet, the musician, the storyteller, the actor... the individual beyond the classroom.

This is not merely a competition; it is a celebration of creativity, passion and self-expression. Whether you have performed countless times or have always wished to perform but never found the right opportunity, this stage belongs to you.

So, gather your courage, follow your passion, and create a moment that you will cherish for years to come.

Guidelines

- Performances should uphold the dignity and values of the institution.
- Audio tracks or any technical requirements, wherever applicable, should be submitted in advance.
- To uphold the spirit of celebrating talents beyond one's professional role, teachers of Music, Dance, Art and Sports shall participate in a category other than their respective teaching discipline.
- The decision of the judges shall be final.

Every performance has a story. Every talent deserves a stage.

This September, let your colleagues witness the extraordinary talent that makes you, you.

Let us come together to celebrate one another, applaud hidden talents and create memories that will remain with us long after the applause fades.

The spotlight is ready... are you?
